

Magdalene

Georges de la Tour
1593-1652

The painting shows Mary Magdalene, supposedly a former prostitute, contemplating her life, death and future. She is traditionally painted in red and I wanted to keep her as a 'painted woman,' albeit symbolically wiping away her red lipstick/former life. Her laptop is appropriately being reformatted.

a sideways look